NOTES OF THE THEATRES.

"Any Night," the one-act play in three scenes which was first presented it the Princess Theatre last March, is to be one of the features of the bill at the Forty-fourth Street Music Hall next

Edgar Smith has sold to Charles Frohman a satire on picture plays. The piece is called "The Lone Trapper" end has been inserted into the third set of the Richard Carle-Hattle Willams musical comedy, "The Doil Girl."

Nina Barbour, the "female barytone." liscovered in a Bowery box factory last reak by Mary Nash, the actress, and innounced to appear at the Palace Thestre next week, will have as guests on Monday evening twenty-three of the employees of the factory. Menday will the be Indiana night at the Palace, and the Indiana Society of New York and nany members of the Daughters of Inliana are expected to be present.

The Carlisle Indian football team atended the performance at the Hippofrome last night. In the opposite boxes lapanese men and women.

The thirty-five players and coaches of he Navy footbail squad will witness the vaudeville performance at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre to-night. Gov Martin H. Glynn and Secretary of the Navy Daniels will attend with the party. The theatre will be especially rated and a special musical programme will be given.

The scramble to get in Weber's Theare to see the motion pictures called 'Traffic in Souls," which are to the novies what red light dramas were to he jegitimate stage, was so great last light that Sergt. Conroy, on detail at he theatre, sent a call for the reserves. tight policemen succeeded in pushing tatrons into two lines.

Taylor Holmes will join the cast of 'Oh. I Say," to-night at the Casino Thetire. He will play the role of Marcel Durand, which heretofore has been aken by Charles Meakins.

The date of the eleventh annual "rehanged from Dec. 7 to Dec. 28. It will to held at the Cohan Theatre. Sale of Men's Trousers Odd Lots and Sizes
